Commitments and “Hold Harmless” Agreement

Our Commitment:

We believe God is merciful and loves us. He wants to heal us in all areas of our lives. You can become a “whole” person in His kingdom. Wholeness is the heart of the cross.

We, as fellow believers, will commit ourselves to seeking God for your healing, and/or the areas of personal growth the Lord has planned for you. Our sacrifice in this commitment is time, a precious and irreplaceable gift. We offer biblical spiritual service to anyone who desires it regardless of ability to pay.

Your Commitment:

I, the undersigned, voluntarily and of my own initiative request spiritual guidance and direction for my life through the pastoral staff and ministry teams of Convergence Church. I hereby agree to the following conditions:

I understand that each of the sessions with the pastoral staff and/or ministry teams will be a time of personal ministry (spiritual guidance) based on the Bible, which is the Word of God.

I understand that no representation has been made, either expressly or implied, that team ministry is to be received as professional, psychological, or psychiatric therapy and team members are, to the best of their ability, doing what they can to help me achieve more freedom in my life. If deemed necessary, a recommendation to seek professional therapy may be made by the team leader or pastoral staff.

I will diligently pray and seek God to show me His plan for my life and will allow God to reveal my heart and the areas of my life He wants to change. I will allow myself to be open to growth and change.

I understand that the results of these sessions are solely within the power and wisdom of God. Convergence Church, its pastoral staff, and its ministry teams cannot be considered responsible for any results, consequences, or effects, or lack thereof, which I may or may not experience as a result of these sessions.

I understand that if I receive ministry from Transformations Ministry, the team is committed to respect the disclosed information, but not to complete confidentiality. The information, as needed, may be shared with other leaders of Transformations Ministry or Convergence Church so as to further my total healing process. This may include future meetings with spiritual mentors in the church to set appropriate boundaries for my personal and spiritual growth.

To the best of my ability, I will follow the assignments given to me by the pastoral staff and/or ministry teams.

I understand that although there is no charge for these services, I am encouraged to make an investment in myself and my process. Efforts to build this ministry, support, and train team members are paid directly from the suggested donation of $50 or more per visit.

I hereby agree to release and hold harmless Convergence Church, its pastoral staff, and ministry team participants from any and all liability, loss, or damage resulting from this meeting or any subsequent meetings dealing with this request for ministry or from my involvement with Convergence Church.
